

2009 Animal Archives Pet of the Year

“He found his way into the hearts of others.”

“When my beloved King was inducted into the animal archives by my veterinarians, Drs. Chris and Julie Landrum, Union, Mo., I was so happy and surprised that someone had recognized what a special dog King was. Anyone who might of read my testimonial on King should be able to tell and understand the kind of dog he was. He was so devoted to my mom after my dad passed away. The Animal Archives is a foundation that cares about the beloved pets that people have lost. It doesn't matter if the animals are purebreds or mixed. They all have special places in our hearts. We need to keep this foundation going so that a lot more beloved pets can be a part of this organization and recognized for their devotion and loyalty to their families, or to an elderly person that has no one except their pet. I am so honored to accept this award on behalf of my King being voted “2009 Pet of the Year”. He has found his place in the hearts of others as well as he did in his family.” - Thank you.
