

Families, friends and clients can honor veterinarians for their admirable life's work by having them inducted into the Veterinary Honor Roll located at the MVMF Veterinary Museum in Jefferson City, Mo.

The display of the name and photo expresses the donor's gratitude for the doctor's constant care and concern for both animal and humans.

You can elect a veterinarian to the honor roll by making a gift of $500 (listing name and photograph) to the Foundation. Photographs of recipients are remade into 3- inch x 4- inch size and returned to the owner. A biography and photo of each honored veterinarian will be requested from the honoree, and kept in the museum's archives.

Honorees, or their families, receive certificates recognizing their induction into the honor roll. They also receive an announcement card showing who nominated them and for what occasion.

Your honoree's name and photo will be displayed on the Veterinary Honor Roll located in the Veterinary Museum in Jefferson City, Missouri.
